

Viking Map

In preparation for your journey as a Viking, draw a few routes the Vikings took from Scandinavia to:

- London
- Paris
- Kiev
- Constantinople
  - Using pg. 330 in your ME Textbook.

What might a Viking traveler find at these destinations?

LONDON, ENGLAND (700-1000 C.E.):

Farms (wheat, livestock, vegetables)
Small villages of farmers and merchants
Different people (Celts, Romans, Anglo-Saxons)
Marketplace (fabrics, jewelry, food)
Ale Houses (beer, wine, food)
Waterway (the North Sea)

KIEV, RUSSIA (700-900 C.E.):

Farms (wheat, livestock, vegetables)
Large marketplaces in the city
Gold, silver, precious metals
Asian fabrics, tapestries
People groups (Russians, Asians)
Waterway (Dnipro River from the Baltic Sea)

PARIS, FRANCE (800-900 C.E.):

Large city with marketplace (artwork, food, clothing shops)
Expensive fabrics (silk, satin)
Exotic foods (olive oil, pears, pomegranates, dates, nuts)
People dressed in fine, expensive clothing
People groups (French, Spanish, Romans)
Waterway (Seine River flows into Paris)

CONSTANTINOPLE, TURKEY (800-1000 C.E.):

Large marketplaces (incense, perfumes, jewelry, fabrics)
Exotic foods (spices from the Orient, olive oil, pomegranates, pears, dates, nuts, coffee, tea)
People groups (Asians, Muslims, Christians, Romans)
New technologies (libraries, hospitals, science/astronomy)
A city that was designed very much like Rome and Athens
Waterway (Bosphorus Strait, connects the Black Sea to the Mediterranean Sea)

